

Pedro Guaman, CVA

Valuation Analyst

✉ pedrog@opgbv.com

☎ 609.334.4668

🔗 LinkedIn Profile

Pedro S. Guaman is a member of the OPG team as a valuation analyst.

Pedro has over 10 years of experience as an accounting professional concentrating in the Real Estate/Property Management industry where he has developed critical analytical skills in Financial Reporting and the preparation of Financial Statements. His skillset allows him to fully understand the overall aspects of managing the finances of a business and to understand which factors are key value drivers of businesses.

Pedro obtained his Certified Valuation Analyst credential with NACVA in 2019 together with a master's degree in Accounting with an additional certification in Forensic Accounting. All of which gives him the necessary knowledge and tools to conduct complete valuation engagements that will assist individuals make the right decisions when planning on buying, selling, or becoming part of a business.

During his professional and academic engagements Pedro has developed professional and ethical standards that reflect in his quality work.

Professional Activities

- National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts

Professional Designations

- Certified Valuation Analyst (National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts)

Education

- Berkeley College (B.S.)
- Montclair State (M.S)
- Montclair State (Certificate of Forensic Accounting)